Summaries

Art and Design

- Pupils will study some costumes worn by children at the Rio Carnival.
- They will use light and shadow to create dancing body images.
- The images will be cut out and decorated with a carnival costume.
- Pupils will learn to use oil pastel and use the sgraffito technique in oil pastels and paint.
- The finished images will be put together on a display board to create a busy carnival scene.

Music

- · Pupils will be introduced to samba.
- They will watch clips of samba performances from the internet and will have the opportunity to play samba rhythms on a variety of instruments.

Geography

- Pupils learn about the South American continent and where Brazil is located in relation to other countries
- They discover that Brazil is a country of great human and physical contrasts.

English

- Pupils explore through their reading, writing, speaking and listening the two great passions of Brazilian life: carnival and sport.
- Amongst a range of exciting literacy-based activities, they write a letter to the Brazilian soccer legend Pele and compose different types of verse inspired by the Olympics.

Design and Technology

 Pupils will design and make flags. that represent the Brazil or Great Britain Olympics team.

Trading Places: Britain or Brazil?

Applied Maths

- Pupils explore the points won by countries in the Olympic Games and the shapes you can find on a football pitch.
- They explore number patterns in music and speculate about designs of houses for different sized families.'

Applied Computing

 Pupils use the materials and resources learned through English and geography to further desk top publishing and general document production skills.

