Small and mighty is the Warbstow Way

Head of School – Mr J Pritchard

30th January 2026

Dear Warbstow Families

Moving in Unity Together

This week, in our school assembly we focused on the vital importance of mutual respect and the power of working together collectively. We shared the beautifully illustrated book, 'We Are Starlings', which served as a wonderful metaphor for our 'Small and Mighty' school. Just as starlings move in a synchronised and harmonious murmuration to keep one another safe, we discussed how our individual actions can collectively ensure everyone in our community can both thrive in, and create a safe, settled and purposeful environment.

We find strength and safety in numbers.
We find warmth in numbers.

We pay attention to the birds nearest to us. We are allies.
Our allies each have their own allies. We all guide each other.

Curriculum

Across the school, our curriculum has been alive with Curiosity and Creativity. In Earhart Class, the children have been showing great Independence while writing detailed reports about Greek monsters, including the hideous Hydra. Meanwhile, in Attenborough Class, pupils have been exploring the Great Fire of London, crafting historical reports and discussing the fascinating detail of valuable cheese being buried in the ground to protect it from the flames. Our youngest learners in Paddington Class have been immersed in the world of Oliver Jeffers, using the book 'Lost and Found' to develop their Empathy and storytelling skills. It is wonderful to see such engagement and Resilience as our pupils dive into their new topics.

A Gentle Reminder About Parking Cars

Please make sure to use the Community Hall car park and keep the access to all properties in Knapmedown Close completely clear. Please also note that the area behind the staff cars is reserved only for taxis and so we'd appreciate keeping that area free. Thank you for your cooperation and for helping us keep things running smoothly.

Living the Warbstow Way

Well done to all our certificate winners! A wonderful number of TTRS awards for January.
