

Words of Wisdom decide possible learn question legend strange location surprise ordinary various	Class Novel: Cornish Folk Tales for Children by Mike O'Connor Poem of the Day: Chosen from a range of poetry books.	Dragons: Fact or Fiction? Writing Legends - St. George, King Arthur (features of legends) Poetry - Jabberwocky by Lewis Carroll Non-chronological report - Dragons: headings, sub-headings, and possessive apostrophes. Fantasy writing - Write a story about finding a dragon's egg	Maths Multiplication and division Measurement including time Geometry: position and direction
French Introduction to letter and sound correspondences - Gender of nouns and plurals - Counting items of clothing - Say what you are putting on and ask others	SEND Ensure task is understood and differentiated appropriately. Clear expectations. PP: EAL: K: Link to Parents Chinese New Year: why are dragons so important? Dragons and dinosaurs: similarities and differences Read and/or share dragon stories Watch dragon-themed films, cartoons	History Who was the real St. George? Saints and Patron Saints of the UK Flags and heraldic emblems Dragons in architecture Geography Possible UK locations for dragon lairs Where have dragons been found/ reported sightings? Maps: routes for journalists	STEM - Compare and contrast ancient and modern architecture with dragon designs/ themes - design a dragon-themed building, city or park
British Values Delivered through PSHE/SCARF lessons TIS Using story to help explore feelings, thoughts, worries and emotions. RE Easter - Forgiveness What is 'good' about Good Friday?	Outdoor learning Search for suitable dragon lair sites. Pupil Voice What I know... What I want to know... What I know now...	Art & Design Dragon sketches, painting, collage Artist focus: Stanley Grosse (style of his Samurai artwork, Dante Gabriel Rossetti (1862) stained glass windows depicting story of St George and the dragon	